

Let's Go Shopping with Marjorie

Dear Shoppers:
Starting this weekend the TORRANCE BOOTERY, 1333 El Prado is opening a bonus club. This is the way it works. You receive a membership card—everytime you purchase a pair of shoes ($4.99 or up) they will punch your card. After 12 punches you receive one pair of Red Goose shoes FREE. To get the club rolling, they are giving you 2 punches instead of one this weekend only. Golly, isn't this a fine offer to save some money? Be sure to get your's started this weekend. They are priced so low you can afford two of them. I'm referring to the new shipment of Betty Barclay and Doris Dodson originals that are now at the SAM LEVY DEPARTMENT STORE. Several different cuts in a sun styled dress with matching boleros, only $8.95. There is a cute number with a scoop neckline by Betty Barclay with rhinestone trim that would be perfect for dress-up, evening wear or anytime. A tiny check seersucker dress with a port sleeve effect and a tiered skirt—that is a Doris Dodson. They are all so cute, can't tell you about all of them so drop in soon and get several cotton cuties.

Something new for the kids!
The people who make the shoe skates for indoor skating are now making ROLLER DERBY outdoor shoe skates for children. They're safe, can't fall off, no clamps, no straps, no adjusting screws. Fine soft leather and heavy construction. Reasonably priced! Get a pair for your child at the TORRANCE HOBBY SHOP, 1219 El Prado. They are going fast. They also have all types of hats, balls and catchers gloves that are so popular now.

Gift suggestions from PARRISH STATIONERS, 1423 Marcellina:

1. Parker or Sheaffer pen and pencil sets with name imprinted free of extra charge.
2. Quality brief cases, also name imprinted. Look around, then compare their prices.
3. Portable typewriters are a popular gift for the graduate. A gift that will serve them well for many years to come. Terms may be arranged. Why not put one on lay-away now?

Have you been into the VAKAY YARDAGE CENTER, 1614 Cabrillo? It's new and such a wonderful service and shop. Stop in, choose a pattern for a summer cotton dress, suit, formal or anything you need and Mrs. Va Kay will make it for you. She is a speedy seamstress, prices are reasonable and there are many unusual prints for your selection. Right now she is doing bridal gowns, the complete trousseau and Prom dresses. Remember it is a Yardage center plus dressmaking, designing and alterations.

Did you ever lose an earring? One of the nicer features of EMMONS JEWELRY is that you may replace that lost one at 1/2 the price of the pair. Set the date—then invite your friends to a Jewelry fashion show. I promise you an evening of fun with an opportunity to buy the unusual in costume jewelry. Phone your local representative Mrs. Frances Raschke at FAirfax 8-5345, she will help you with your guest list. Just for being a hostess you receive your choice in a lovely gift of jewelry. Everything to gain—nothing to lose.

I remember, when you are expecting a baby you want cool, cool comfort. You will have that in this new 5-piece Maternity ensemble. Sold separately or mix and match the shorts, pedal pushers, skirt and two jackets. One jacket is sleeveless style, the other has short sleeves with white pique trim. Made of washable chromspun (rayon and acetate). The whole outfit is very moderately priced. Be sure to see this at OLIVE WATSON MATERNITY AND UNIFORM SHOP, 215 So. Hawthorne Blvd. in Hawthorne.

Are you having trouble buying paint? Let me suggest a specialty house where you do save money and service is the key note. It is SOUTH WEST PAINT & WALLPAPER, 16607 So. Hawthorne Blvd. They offer free inspections and will guarantee the job if they have first inspected the work to give you advice and help on "how to do it." They will also help with color selection so that you will know what effect you will create by the use of various colors. You can buy wallpaper here as low as 9c a roll.

After they get this hat on their head they will be looking for a new watch on their wrist. If you plan to give a watch why not make your choice where you can see all the major names in quality watches. ALLEN JEWELERS, 1321 Sartori Ave. will show you Elgin, Hamilton, Longines, Wittnauer, Le Coultre, Bulova, Gruen. Friendly credit, of course, no interest, no carrying charges. Shopping with Marjorie ...

We all like to be beautiful, so let's start with the hair. Let's get ready for vacation time with a good permanent. OCEE'S BEAUTY COVE is offering you a quality, name brand permanent for the special price of $8.50 and that includes individual hair styling, shampoo and set. Here at this lovely seacomber beauty cove they have 6 operators to serve you and are open four nights a week as a courtesy to you working gals and you Mothers who can't make it during the day. Phone FRontier 2-1668 for your appointment.

"This Is Your Life" Skit Honors Outgoing Prexy

The outgoing president of Torrance Woman's Club, Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer, takes with her another cherished memory of her term of office when she recalls in the future the party given her last Friday by members of her board at the Post avenue home of Mrs. M. A. Bauman.

The party played up from the humorous angle, was a complete surprise to Mrs. Van Deventer, who expected an informal party but walked in on a group clad in costumes, yard clothes, and other outlandishly "informal" attire.

A beautiful train case was the official gift presented by the board. However, the most impressive presentation was a "This Is Your Life" skit complete with a "Ralph Edwards" impersonated by Mrs. F. P. Foley who presented the book "This Is Your Life" printed and drawn up by Mrs. Helen Benton.

The book outlined events from girlhood through her church work, P.T.A. and Woman's Club activities. Some outstanding examples of Mrs. Van Deventer's local work are program chairman of Methodist Church WSCS; president and program chairman of Torrance High P.T.A., being instrumental in inaugurating the dental clinic and post graduation party and presenting the trophy for outstanding Thespians.

Other little humorous gifts given to the honoree were a Hazel Bishop lipstick (empty, of course), a little girl's charm bracelet made up of penny charms representative of her life's events such as phone, teacups, cupid, and others, and a 1954 Buick Roadmaster, (toy-natch).

"Everybody will want to be president, now!" exclaimed the outgoing prexy, who thought perhaps, she might like to stay in herself, after all this. After a dinner featuring stuffed breast of chicken, the board all said they were tired, so Mrs. Van Deventer announced she'd do the entertaining May 28, when she will hostess the board at her home.

P-TA Elects Officers For Two Posts

At a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Ingram, with Mrs. W. A. Wright, president-elect presiding, the Torrance Council P-TA elected two new officers to replace Mrs. Ralph Eyestone as third vice president and Mrs. Lee Polick as corresponding secretary. Mrs. Eyestone and Mrs. Polick have accepted presidencies on the Crenshaw P-TA and Howard Wood P-TA respectively.

Mrs. Glenn Blake was elected as third vice president and Mrs. Duane Sherwood elected to the office of corresponding secretary. The Council also ratified the following chairmen: Mmes. A. C. Turner, parliamentarian; Bruce Howey, program and founders day; Evar Janssen, magazines, publications and emblems; Robert Payne, membership; R. E. Moffitt, juvenile protection; Elmer Moon, legislation; Paul Slonecker, safety and civilian protection; Glen Runsted, community relations; Mark Wright, school education; Loren Edman, music; Paul Mosman, radio and television; Hartley Carr, spiritual and character education; Ross Dorsett, parent education; W. A. Wright, dental health; Glenn Blake, student welfare; E. Ingram, finance and budget; Louis Dyer, publicity; I. O. Kastan, record book; W. R. Towell, room representative; A. MacKenzie, honorary life membership; C. S. Connors, hospitality; H. Cortez, courtesy; and R. L. McDonald, registrar. The board also planned to

PARK SHOP

REDONDO TRIANGLE

& SAVE

by MARJORIE

It is easy to park your car, there are many stores for you to shop and save some money in the Redondo Triange Shopping Center. Located right on the ocean front. If you have never been there, visit them soon.

Fairly soon now you will be starting to collect those vacation snapshots. Of course you should have a camera. If you don't have one, get one, if you do have one you should have it checked. The logical place to do that is where they have all the accessories and the know-how on cameras. That's the Triangle Camera Shop. They carry cameras priced from $6.50 to the Graflex at $400, so I'm sure you will find one that will do what you want it to do.

Visit the shop where you can have individuality at moderate price—it's the Made-moiselle Shop. This store is individually owned by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Breen, who are Torrance residents. They are limited financially to the amount of credit they can carry but at this time are extending an invitation to open a charge account to about 50 Torrance homeowners. This store has built a reputation on coats, suits, and dresses but you will find everything in sportswear, lingerie and accessories as well.

You'll find her up on cloud number 7 since she got a pair of those wonderful HONEY BUGS, the shoe with the cushion sole. You will find these shoes in dress wedges and play sandals priced at $3.99 and $4.99 at Jerry's Shoes. They're so good, looking in colored linens, shantungs, white, kid leather and nylon meshes. If you're one of the lovers of the popular things you will find them here in red, black, natural and white at $4.99. To help you save while you spend they give S & H green stamps.

Let's look over the baby section of Byrnes Tidy Tots. Here we find everything from the necessary equipment like play pens, high chairs etc. down to colored safety pins. They carry all the Kayser knit wear in white as well as pastels. See the terry cloth 2-piece sacque sets, water proof diaper cover and applied sacque. Now you can keep baby well tucked in with KOVER-STA, a fitted blanket. Comes in five soft colors at only $3.98. They will gladly gift wrap your purchase.

Here is something to write home about—it is a new easy Squaw skirt all hemmed, ready processed, with matching belt. Easy and inexpensive to make. All you do is put on the belt, sew up back seam and sew in the zipper. You can get yours at Florence Fabrics. She also has other spring fabrics for your summer dresses or skirts if you're ambitious and like to start from scratch. A large assortment of trimmings and
